What our Ambassadors Say

"I can't express how much fun it has been! I would recommend it to anyone. Not only will you gain many life skills but also you'll have a lot of fun!"

"It has given me the skills that I can use in the future to help myself and other people."

"Being a Student Ambassador has helped me develop confidence outside of my course. It has also enabled me to promote the college and give something back."

"A Student Ambassador is not something I ever thought I could be until coming to Kendal College! It has helped me gain confidence that I never thought I had. I have met some amazing people that I wouldn't have met if it wasn't for being an Ambassador."

"Being a Student Ambassador for the past three years has been fabulous, not to mention that the mutual respect between yourself and the staff while you work with them is wonderful."

How can you get involved?

Open Days, Admissions and other College events

Welcome visitors, share your own college experience and help create a great experience for future students.

School & Community Events

Represent Kendal College at events, talk to prospective students and help us bring presentations and activities to life.

Social Media

Work with the Marketing team, share ideas, create content and help us show what student life at Kendal College is really like.

You choose what you get involved in

There are lots of opportunities throughout the year and you won't be expected to attend every event.

 Please note that transport to and from events cannot be provided. You must ensure that you are able to get home safely.
